Mark Smith, announcing the passage

Arizona is to gain from statehood rests in the three votes that we will furnish the silver forces in their battle

KNOWLEDGE
Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation.
It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

of Tombstone, that according to an act passed by the Seventeenth Legislature, I have this day

City of Tombstone. Hereafter all persons carrying on such business will report to me when of Cochise, Territory of Arizona.

Before J. A. McRae, a justice of the peace.

the complaint filed in the said court by the said J. A. McRae, against the said E. S. Mendes, for the Territory of Arizona sends greeting to E. S. Mendes, defendant.
You are hereby summoned and required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in said Justice's court before said Justice of the Peace, at his office at St.
David, Cochise county aforesaid, and to answer the said complaint filed therein within five days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within this precinct, or if served without this precinct but in this county, within ten days; or if served out of this county, within fifteen days; otherwise default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover $75.00 on account with interest and costs, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, as above required, the plaintiff will apply for judgment by default against you for said sum and all costs.
Given under my hand at my said office this 5th day of December, A. D. 1893.

A MUSICAL MELANGE.
CHRISTINE NILSSON once sang to the country folk for pennies, to the accompaniment of her brother's violin.
PADREWEKI just before sitting down at the piano holds his fingers for several minutes in warm water, presumably to render them more flexible.
MME. PATTI has arrived in this country and is looking forward to one of the most successful farewell tours she has made in twenty years.
A REPRESENTATION of the bagpipe was found in the ruins of Tarsus. The instrument was in good condition.
A SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL, who is a member of a native African choir now traveling in New England, claims to be niece of Lo Bengula, but she doesn't seem to have inherited his taste for economy in dress.
ISAAC GORDON ROTHSCHILD, aged four years, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Rothschild, formerly of Cincinnati, now of New York, is the latest infantile musical prodigy, singing all the latest comic songs, making no mistakes in music or words.
AGUSTA COTTELOW, thirteen years of age, is the latest musical prodigy. She has been before the public for eight years. She possesses the "absolute pitch" and from her earliest years could tell the notes struck upon a piano in a combination with her back turned to the instrument. In fact she is a natural musician, to whom ear is more than note. Miss Cottelow is now on the Pacific coast.

AN HISTORICAL SITE.
The Scene of the Inspiration of a Popular American Lyric.
Among the pretty and historic towns almost on the borders of Boston lies Seituate, important, says the Providence Journal, not only because it contains some of the oldest houses in Plymouth county, but because it gave birth to the author of one of the most popular American lyrics, Samuel Woodworth, the author of "The Old Oak Bucket."
It is curious that the name "Seituate" itself is a corruption of the Indian word "Satuit," or "cold brook," from a little stream hardly a mile long, which the first settlers of Seituate found as refreshing as had the savages before them.
This brook, of course, is not Woodworth's well, and yet the well is no creation of the poet's imagination.
It can still be seen by the visitor to Seituate, and in it hangs a bucket, "the iron-bound bucket, the moss-covered bucket," in fact, the very bucket that inspired the poet. This, indeed, is what they say in Seituate—and even if the skeptical incline to doubt that a wooden bucket could withstand the wear and tear of a hundred years; there is no doubt that Samuel Woodworth, as a boy, used to drink from a similar bucket dipped into this very same well. Samuel Woodworth was born in Seituate in 1785. His father, a soldier of the revolution, owned a good farm, at present divided. The old farmhouse is no longer standing.

apothecary" to her majesty and the Ky., is assessed in his own name for 4,295 acres, a tract exceeded in extent by few upon which a single owner pays taxes.

DAVID S. MUZZEY, of Lexington, Mass., who graduated this year from Harvard with honors, has been ap-dock laborer.

The quotation, "He shall be called Nazarene," used by Matthew in the last verse of his second chapter, is not

A Bright Lad,
Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:
"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and I broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone.
If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."
